NATIONS CUP AT THE CDIO5* OF COMPIÈGNE: THE 7 EXPECTED TEAMS!

Compiègne's Grand Parc Equestrian Stadium is ready to welcome its Internationaux de dressage 2019! From Friday the 17th of May, the World's best dressage riders as well as hopefuls in the discipline will set the event in motion in the three dedicated arenas. Over 200 riders are entered, and 28 horse/rider combinations from 7 different nations will rival each other in the only FEI Dressage Nations Cup to be held in France, organised by the Compiègne Équestre association.

A full list of entries follows this press release, or can be found by clicking here.

If the first top of the bill names, notably including a number of World and Olympic champions, were released a few days ago, the selections for each the seven teams defending the colours of Belgium, France, Great Britain, Sweden, Switzerland, the Netherlands and the United States are now known.
With the objectives of winning the leg, gleaning points on the circuit, qualifying for this August's European Championships in Rotterdam, and fine-tuning their tests before judges who will be members of the jury at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games… It's a sure bet that the selected athletes will be determined to give their best.

The promise of three days of top sport with the stars of dressage:

Spectators will also have the possibility of benefiting from the exhibitors village and a number of catering outlets, perhaps treating themselves to a table and bottle of champagne in "Le Privilège" restaurant closest to the champions, being situated on the edge of main arena.

For those unfortunately unable to attend the event, Compiègne Équestre association has again wanted to offer the possibility of watching the competition from afar with live streaming. Thanks to a partnership with Cheval TV, classes in the CDIO5* and CDI3* can be watched anywhere in the World for free on www.chevaltv.fr.
