A beautiful competition in Compiègne today, the Grand Prix CDIO 5* - FEI Nations Cup, the first in France. After their victory by team in the CDIO 3* of Wellington, American riders carry out a beautiful performance. The victory is for the American rider Kasey PERRY-GLASS (USA) and Goerklintgaards Dublet, with a final note of 77,440%. In the second place there is an other american rider, Laura Graves (5th at the time as of World Equestrian Games, Caen - 2014) with Verdades and a final note of 75,440%. She is followed closely by Adelinde CORNELISSEN (NED), which was Silver Medal to the Olympic Games of London in 2012 and Bronze medal to the World Equestrian Games 2014, in Caen. Today with Jerich Parzival, she obtains a final note of 75,400%, to the third place. Karen TEBAR, signs a beautiful performance with Don Luis (75,060%), they are classified in the fourth place. The provisional ranking by team for the FEI Nations Cup: 1st: The USA, 2nd: Sweden and 3rd: France. Sunday there will be the two last tests for the CDIO 5*, GPS and Freestyle, and the final ranking by team for the FEI Nations Cup.

In the other categories of the CDI, two riders fly over the competition: Carl HESTER (GBR) author of three victories in the three test of the CDI 3* (with Nip Tuck in the GP and GPS, and with Wanadoo in Freestyle) and a third place. The young Spanish rider Juan MATUTE GUIMON (ESP) was also impressive by his performances this weekend, by wining the four tests in which he was entered, with Quantico Ymas in U25 and Dhannie Ymas in the category Young Riders. The Netherlands dominate the Pony category by classifying 4 riders in the test Individual Pony. Daphne Van Peperstraten (NED) gains the test with Wonderful Girl (76,098%).

In Compiègne the day began in music with the Freestyle test from the CDI 2*- Prix Colas. The test, very appreciated of the public, is gained by Francoise HOLOGNE-JOUX (BEAUTIFUL) and Warhol (73,875%). In the second place we also find Belgium, represented by Liselot DUPONT and Expression (72,825%), followed by Jeroen OKKEMA (NED) and Ducati (72,300%) to the third place. Beautiful performance for French Pierre FLEW who is classified 4th this test, with Sir Piko, in 72,250%. Carl HESTER and Mariette WITHAGES, international judge, also offered us a beautiful moment of division with the public to the necks of a meeting of dedication of their respective books. Carl Hester: "Making it happen", its autobiography and "Valegro", history of this large horse multi-medal-holder and of which Carl HESTER and the owner. Mariette Withages: "There is a horse in my kitchen", delivers which mixes perfectly love with the horses and the kitchen. Each receipt tells us a history related to the horses. The benefit are entirely transferred with an association.
